

Application Form for PSU-PKU Summer Program

The mathematics departments at Pennsylvania State University and Peking University are offering a special topics course with the focus on solution techniques for differential equations based on computer simulations. The course will be held July 13 -- July 29 2009, at Peking University, Beijing, China.

In order to participate in this program and to be considered for the financial support, you must complete and submit this application form. Those selected for the program will then be given permission to register the course.
